

WHO AND WHOM: EXERCISE #1

NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Circle the correct pronoun in parentheses. In the space provided below each sentence, write what job it's doing. If it's a subject, write the word that it's the subject of, etc.

1. (Who, Whom) did you see in a hole in the ground?

2. The hobbit is the one (who, whom) we least suspected.

3. To (who, whom) did he open the door?

4. Please support (whoever, whomever) is leaving on an adventure.

5. I shall support (whoever, whomever) Gandalf chooses.

6. (Who, Whom) do you think will be chosen by the wizard?

7. Bilbo says "hello" to (whoever, whomever) he sees.

8. His perfectly round door is open to (whoever, whomever) wants to come.

WHO AND WHOM: EXERCISE #2

NAME: _____

DIRECTIONS: Circle the correct pronoun in parentheses. In the space provided below each sentence, write what job it's doing. If it's a subject, write the word that it's the subject of, etc.

1. Most of the dwarves (who, whom) are arriving are wearing colored hoods.

2. Give this cake to (whoever, whomever) walks through the door.

3. (Who, Whom) do you need to see, Gandalf?

4. (Who, Whom) do you suppose is the the head of this party?

5. I don't know (who, whom) he intended to invite.

6. (Who, Whom) do you think called the dwarves?

7. (Who, Whom) does Gandalf want to speak to?

8. He is the one (who, whom) we should heed.
