As soon as Sir Adam heard the boys tale, he began to snap out orders. The band of men was soon on their way, and they rode quickly through the village, the people and the fields. Adam set upon the brown palfrey in a state of high glory and he wished with all his heart that Roger, could see him now.

WHAT TO DO:In each sentence below there is a comma split. In the spaces below each sentence are the numbers of all the other punctuation in the sentence. Find the comma split and write its number in the space at the left. Write what it is splitting beside that comma's number below the sentence. Next to the other numbers, write the buzzword of the rule for that punctuation. Remember that each set of quotation marks counts as one thing. We will only put a number under the open quote (") mark, not the close quote (") mark.
