

UNITS 10-12 REVIEW

NAME: _____

WHAT TO DO: Mark all the parts of speech that you know and put parentheses around the prepositional phrases. Then, on a separate piece of paper, draw a baseline and fill in the subject and the verb and their modifiers. If there are any other words left over in the sentence, don't worry about them for now.

1. The man in our story always wanted his own land.
2. During that year he surveyed a nice piece of property.
3. Watch out for snakes in the babbling brook!
4. Amos told sad stories about the family down the road.
5. The very tender heart of this man wanted peace for this family.
6. Throughout his life Mr. Fortune regularly helped his neighbors.
7. He always worked hard on his work projects.

Short Answer:

1. The articles in our language are _____, _____, and _____.
2. What kind of a noun begins with a capital letter? _____
3. What kind of noun can only be one word? _____
4. Adjectives are words that _____.
5. A noun is the name of _____.
6. Pronouns are words that _____.
7. Adverbs modify _____, _____, and _____.

DIRECTIONS: Write what job the underlined words are doing. Choose your answers from among the following:

SUBJECT	MODIFIER	VERB	OBJECT OF THE PREPOSITION
SENTENCE #	WORD		JOB
1	story		_____
2	nice		_____
3	Watch		_____
4	told		_____
5	heart		_____
6	life		_____
7	He		_____